Educational, Cultural and Fund Raising Events

- Have lunch or dinner at PJ Whelihan's Restaurant (799 DeKalb Pike Blue Bell) on September 15 – ALL DAY! Whelihan's is hosting the Library for a Dine & Donate evening with 10% of the TOTAL check being donated to the Library. This includes bar and takeout items. All you have to do is mention that you are supporting the North Wales Area Library. No voucher needed!
- Book Signing! On Sept. 23 at 7:30 meet Brian Thompson NPHS Alumni. Brian's book is The Lost Testament. "His personal life ruined, an ousted pastor flees south to start over, but is interrupted by a woman with a hideous scar and a secret. She passes him her life's work. Now, following her murder, it's up to him to spread the message she fought to protect, battle violent enemies, and face an uncertain destiny." Books will be available for signing and purchase.
- A limited edition caroler, "The Librarian", has been commissioned from Byers' Choice by the Friends of the North Wales Library to commemorate the opening of the new Library facility. Only 100 carolers will be available for purchase, at a price of $70 each. A prototype is on display at the Library. Those interested in purchasing one of these delightful figurines are invited to register their order at the Library circulation desk, for delivery in September. A celebratory reception will be held at the Library on Friday, October 1 beginning at 7:00 P.M., at which Mr. Bob Byers, Jr., of Byers' Choice will be available to autograph the carolers for interested purchasers.
- Food for Life Cooking & Nutrition Class – Tuesday, October 5 from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. Promote a healthy plant based diet with low fat, high fiber meals to the family diet! Healthy snacks provided. No fee. Sign up at the circulation desk. Reservations required.
- Save the date - Saturday, November 13 will be the Friends second craft fair to be held at Sanctuary Methodist Church, Prospect & Hancock Streets. The craft fair makes holiday shopping a breeze. Raffles for vendor items can make your shopping bill even lower while benefitting the Library. To reserve a table to display your crafts, please contact Peggy at 610-304-8350. Don't miss the fun!

Literacy programs

For Children:

- Baby's First Book – A gift of literacy from the Library, sponsored by First Niagara. The PA One Book Every Young Child 2010 selection, What a Treasure, is presented to each baby born to a Library patron. This statewide effort encourages adults to share and talk about books and stories with children.

Please stop by or call the library with the name and birth date of any new baby in your household.

- Our Little Bookworms – Toddlers (12 months – 3 years). Toddlers meet a Tuesday morning each month @ 10:30 A.M. for thirty minutes of story time. Please join us on September 14th and October 12th.
- Children's Story Hour – Ages 3 - 6 are invited to attend the following Tuesday mornings, 10 -11 A.M.

September 7 – Back to School Stories

September 21- Zoo Animals

October 5 – Fire Prevention
