FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When and where are practices?

Practices will be held at the fields in Parkside Place Park located across from the township building. Practices will be 45 minutes long on Thursday evenings. Practice times are based on our volunteer coach's choice. Players are randomly assigned to teams. Practices begin at 4:30 pm and conclude at 7:30 pm.

When and where are games?

Games will also be held at the fields in Parkside Place Park located across from the township building. Games will be one hour long on Saturday mornings. Games begin at 9:00 am.

How do I sign up as a volunteer coach?

All head coaches will receive a credit of $59. This can be used on any future soccer leagues or programs offered by UGT! Contact Angelina Capozzi if you are interested at acapozzi@uppergwynedd.org.

Can my child be on the same team as their friend?

Of course! Simply indicate the name in the "friend request" space during registration on Community Pass Online.

What should my child bring to practices and games?

- Players should bring shin guards, sneakers and a water everyday.
- For Saturday games, players should wear their reversible jersey.
- Cleats are not required, however, they are permitted (no metal spikes).
- Balls are provided for use at each practice and game.

When will I know what team I am on?

Parents will receive an email with team assignments the week prior to the meet and greet. This email will be sent by your volunteer coach.
